

CASE #: _____

I, Alan L. Hamilton Sr. am writing this statement of my own free will. My statement is:

On 1/13/14 at approximately 1330 hrs my wife and I were beginning to watch "Lone Survivor" at the Cobb Theatre. As the movie began I observed a w/m stand up to my "RIGHT" and lean over his back seat and begin to yell something to the affect, "I am trying to text my fucking daughter if you don't mind. I seen him throw what appeared to be a bag of popcorn at the seated gentleman (suspect shooter) behind him. Note: I was sitting in the top row of the bottom section of the theatre approximately 5 to 6 seats south/left of the seated suspect/shooter.

Shortly after the standing subject threw the bag of popcorn I heard a loud pop and a muzzle blast. I seen the standing subject/person who was shot grab his chest and stagger toward the north side of the theatre. He then collapsed and fell between the seats. Other patrons began to perform (CPR). As soon as I heard the shot I moved to the area of the shooter and noticed that he had just laid a small black semi-auto hand-gun in his left knee. I placed my hand in the chest of the suspect and retrieved the weapon. I dropped the magazine from the weapon and maintained my position in front of the suspect. The older w/m began to request to leave where I continued to make him stay seated until the arrival of law enforcement. I handed the weapon + magazine to a Sgt of the Pasco Co Sheriff's Office. Note: None of the above statements are quotes or written verbatim,
