5 MR. MARTIN: And you're ruling is?

6 THE COURT: My ruling is that each -- whoever
7 wishes for me to file -- for a transcript to be
8 filed will submit a request with good grounds
9 shown -- good cause shown. I will look at it or 10 Judge Crane will look at it.

11 I'll have -- obviously according to the AO, it
12 will go to Judge Crane. If he wishes to designate 13 someone else to do so, he may do so according to 14 the AO.

15 So somebody, Judge Crane or his designee, will 16 look at it and rule accordingly. And if that 17 request is granted, then the filing will be due
18 within 30 days.

19 MR. MARTIN: All right. And would the Court
20 like to draft its own order or would you like for 21 the State to draft the order?

22 THE COURT: I'd prefer for you to draft one.

23 MR. MARTIN: All right.

24 THE COURT: And just run it by --

25 MR. MARTIN: Madam Court Reporter, the last,

I asked, what is the Court's ruling, the State is ordering that from that point on.
