ORDER FOR PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER 10th 2014

At the Pre-trial on July 9th 2014 a Pre-trial was scheduled September 10th 2014 to set a trial date in early 2015. During the Pre-trial on September 10th 2014 the following will be expected of the State and Defense:

1. The Defendant will be present for the Pre-trial.
2. The State will have an accounting of all outstanding discovery still to be disclosed by the State to the Defense and a proposed time line for completion.
3. The Defense will have an accounting of all outstanding reciprocal discovery still to be disclosed by the Defense to the State and a proposed time line for completion.
4. The Court will inquire for the number of depositions completed on September 10th 2014 and the number of depositions still remaining to be completed. The Court will want an accounting of the dates that depositions are set and if any depositions that need to be taken are not yet set on a specific date. The Court will inquire about what specific dates have been made available for depositions, how many have been completed, how many have been cancelled.

5. The Court will require a proposed timeline from the State with an estimated number of days necessary for jury selection and prosecution witness testimony. The Court's understanding from the previous Pretrial is 3 days for jury selection and 5 days to present evidence.
6. If either side is planning to call witnesses during the trial, they are to verify days of non-availability February 5th 2015 thru March 27th 2015.
7. The State and Defense are put on notice by this order that the Court will meet with any media representatives immediately following the September 10th 2014 pretrial to discuss media access accommodations and rules for the trial in Courtroom D. If the State and Defense have concerns or issues regarding coverage they want addressed they should be prepared to discuss them at that time.

DONE AND ORDERED in Pasco County, Florida, this 3rd day of September, 2014.
