FILED FOR RECORD
PASCO COUNTY, FLORIDA

ORDER FOR ELECTRONIC PUBLIC ACCESS TO COURT RECORDS

THIS CAUSE, came before the court upon review of the file. The Court thereupon finds as follows:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Administrative Order 07-49, In re: Revised Interim Policy on Electronic Release of Court Records, J. Thomas McGrady, Chief Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit, has designated State v. Reeves, Case No. 14-00216CFAES, as a case of significant public interest, thereby authorizing the Clerk of Circuit Court to make available, electronically, the court records of the subject case.

Court Records is defined in Rule of Judicial Administration, 2.420(b)(1)(A) as follows:

“court records,” which are the contents of the court file, including the progress docket and other similar records generated to document activity in a case, transcripts filed with the clerk, documentary exhibits in the custody of the clerk, and electronic records, videotapes, or stenographic tapes of depositions or other proceedings filed with the clerk, and electronic records, videotapes, or stenographic tapes of court proceedings; . . .

The Clerk of Circuit Court advised the Court that in the interest of public access to the subject case it has developed the ability to provide electronic access by way of a dedicated website.

Therefore, be it ORDERED and ADJUDGED as follows:

1. Unless specifically ordered otherwise, the Clerk of Circuit Court is hereby authorized to post court records, in State v. Reeves, case number 14-00216CFAES, on a website in a time frame that is reasonably possible after processing and redacting confidential information from said records as provided in Rule of Judicial Administration 2.420 and Local Administrative Order 2010-065.

2. To the extent that the Clerk is performing a judicial function with regard to the reproducing and/or reformatting such court records to comply herewith, the clerk shall be held harmless for inadvertent damage during reproduction and/or reformatting process.

DONE and ORDERED this 13th day of February, 2014.

Pat Siracusa, Circuit Judge
